Format

Presentations may take any creative format. While essays are acceptable, the BVA recognizes there may be more effective methods to communicate the vision and encourages other forms such as poetry, art, drama, dance, music, photo/video, multimedia, etc. If the application is in a form other than an essay, be sure to include:

1. A title
2. A description: How does this piece reflect your vision of the Butternut Valley watershed in the year 2040?

Eligibility

High-school seniors who are residents of the Butternut Valley. Candidates who have strong ties to the Valley such as employment or seasonal residency will also be considered.
